Ingredients

- 1/2 yellow pepper
- 2 tsp zera (cumin seeds)
- 1 tsp salt
- black pepper
- 1 cup V8 Hot & Spicy vegetable juice
- 1 can V8 vegetable juice (large can)
- 1 can tomato sauce
- 1 potato — cut up
- 5-6 cloves garlic — cut up
- 1/2 + 1/3 cup oil
- 1 1/2 tsp hot paprika
- 1 1/4 tsp cayenne pepper

Instructions (continued)

5. Add 4 cups of water. Once it comes up to a boil, skim off any scum that rises from the oil, then lower the heat and simmer for 30-45 minutes.
6. Cook the noodles separately according to the package directions. Serve the lagman over the noodles.

Tips

- Noodles: Cook the noodles separately and ladle the lagman over them - the noodles are not cooked in the sauce.
- Keep it kosher: Check that the V8 and tomato sauce are certified kosher.

Transcribed from a handwritten recipe photo. A few readings are best-effort and worth checking against the original: the meat has no quantity written; the celery is written as a circled 1 (read as 1 stalk); the potato line reads '2 circled, 1 potato' (read as 1 potato); the V8 and tomato sauce quantities were squeezed into the right margin (1 large can V8, 1 cup V8 Hot & Spicy, 1 can tomato sauce); the salt in the instructions was corrected from tbsp to tsp in the handwriting; the oil is written as 'about 1/2 cup + 1/3 cup'. 'Zera' is cumin seeds. Servings and times are estimates - the original gives no servings or meat quantity. — Handwritten recipe photo submitted 2026-11-10
